

Bowden Grandview School

May 5, 2025

The grade 7 students designed and built bridges made of only a single box of spaghetti and hot glue. We loaded the bridges with weights to see how much weight they could carry. This year two students beat the record weight from last year, of 38.5 lbs!

1st place: Scarlett Salsbury, 63.5 lbs

2nd place: DJ Bitz, 61 lbs

3rd Place: Jackson Taylor and Carter Engler, 27.5 lbs

What's Happening:

Wednesday, May 7

- FOG Flower Delivery

Thursday, May 8

- Elementary Assembly @ 2:10

Literacy Corner

It's almost Mother's Day, let's celebrate the amazing moms in your lives. Mother's Day, a heartfelt celebration honoring the remarkable women who fill our lives with love, wisdom, and boundless strength. Let's check out a few awesome mothers days books!

Happy Mother's Day from the Crayons

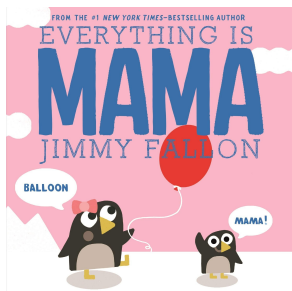

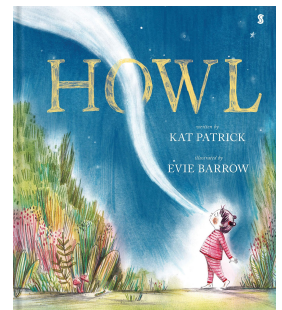

by Drew Daywalt

In a wonderful celebration of Mother's Day, the hilarious crayons from the #1 New York Times bestselling The Day The Crayons Quit love their moms - and mother figures in their lives - so much, they wrote a book about it!

Howl

Written by Kat Patrick and Illustrated by Evie Barrow

Howl is a picture book that initially stands out because of the beautiful illustrations, and it leaves an impression because of the thoughtful and endearing mother/daughter story. In my mind I tie it strongly together with Where the Wild Things Are - which of course is high praise. And the major difference is that the magical adventure takes place with mom by the child's side.

Everything is MAMA

Written by Jimmy Fallon and Illustrated by Miguel Ordóñez

Everything is MAMA and its companion Your Baby's First Word will be DADA are both hilarious. Our 4-year-old daughter cracks up on every single page. The animals and their big eyes are also adorable, and they are obviously a very big portion of the character of this book.
