The Grade 5 class enjoyed their trip to TrailHead in Red Deer. They had a blast trying to climb all the different walls in the funzone.

Literacy Corner

It is no secret that educators make decisions upon decisions constantly! Ms. Northrup loved the book wranglers post and just had to share some of these fabulous books involving students and educators! Which one is your favorite?!?

What makes a teacher's 1,500 decisions unique isn't just the number—it's the relentless pace, emotional complexity, and lack of prep time between decisions.

Many are made with:

0 seconds to think
30 students watching
No pause button

Emotional, academic, & social outcomes attached

It's cognitive overload, emotional labor, and performance art—all rolled into one.

Indigenous Story

Whether or not you're Métis, there's so much to experience and learn about this amazing Indigenous culture — take a picture book journey into Métis crafts, music and cooking with friends who love to share.
